Does I have a 60-40
chance on the account of one being so weak
But I am not moving about it so you do not need to tell dear well that is about enough of my self.

How is the month
going along by this time? I sure hope that it is well and you can eat.
Well old dear I will close and ans. your question at another time rec.

Dear Alice;

Hello old township
yes I am still alive and feeling some better to day But that is not saying a whole lot, I have had company all day one of my sisters was on the ward at 7³⁰ this

O, m. she came in at 3⁰⁰ this morning and the other one her husband and my dad got here at 10³⁰ but they are all gone and I can't say that I am sorry for I don't like to many at a time the way that they all happened to get out once over the Dr. sent one of the sisters a message yesterday that I was not so well and she caught the first train out and then sent the other sister and dad a message that I was worse so here they all come with a brother-in-law thrown in, I know nothing about it all, I asked the Dr. if he sent the message and he said that he did for the way my temp is acting there is no telling when this sick might just away all at once and if it
